Action Guide

Kestutis Rasimavicius

1. Surround yourself with the best

Kestutis talks about how he figured out that a good way to understand about being the best, and how they think and act, is to surround yourself with the best. By being around the top people in your field, you will not only learn from them, you will also start to feel like one of them.

How Does It Apply?

Think about who the best people in your field are. Write their names down below, and now try to figure out how to spend some time with them. Remember, it doesn't have to be hanging out with them all the time; it could be exchanging emails or mentoring.

2. Get Healthy

Kestutis explains how your body is the most important tool that you have, so looking after it and making sure that it is healthy and working properly is very important.

How Does It Apply?

Think about what you are doing (and not doing) to stay healthy. Now write down below the changes that you need to make and figure out a way to start.

3. Visualize your goals

Kestutis describes how an important factor in helping you to achieve your goals is by visualizing them. If you don't believe that they will actually happen, it is much harder to do.

How Does It Apply?

Write down below what your long and short term goals are. Now close your eyes and visualize them. Make sure that you do this on a regular basis as you inch closer to achieving them.
